

2004 PRESIDENTIAL PRIMARY DATES
AND CANDIDATE FILING DEADLINES FOR BALLOT ACCESS

(Data as of 5/26/04)

Note: Dates Subject to Change / S Indicates Senate Election / General Election Date 11/2/04

Establishing the date for a Presidential primary, and determining the type of Presidential primary held, varies from state to state. This is due to differences in state statutes, party constitutions, party rules and regulations, party by-laws, and delegate selection plans. In some states, a caucus and/or convention may be held instead of a Presidential primary election. Other states may use a combination of both caucuses and primaries for delegate selection. This state-by-state variation should be kept in mind when examining this listing of dates for the 2004 Presidential primaries. Questions concerning a state's primary election procedure should be addressed to the state's Election Director.

Notes:

1. The Independent Filing Deadline column shows the date for the filing of petitions by independent and/or third and minor party candidates. This is a general reference date for use by the public and voters. Candidates and others seeking specific information should contact the states for other deadlines that may need to be met. For example, the petitions may have to be checked by officials prior to this date. A declaration of candidacy may be due before the petitions are due. New parties may have different deadlines.
2. In Utah, the holding of a state Presidential primary election is dependent upon funding by the legislature, which did not occur for 2004. Consequently, the Utah State Democratic Party scheduled a party-run Presidential preference primary for 2/24/04.
3. Presidential general elections are not held in American Samoa, Guam, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands.

Notes:

1. In Connecticut and Utah, conventions are held by the political parties prior to the primary. In Virginia, parties may choose to nominate by convention rather than by primary election. (In other states, such as Indiana, Kansas, Michigan, South Carolina, Texas and West Virginia, it is possible that minor parties may schedule conventions to nominate candidates.)

2. In Louisiana, a Congressional primary election is not held. The election for candidates seeking federal office is the General Election scheduled for 11/2/04. If necessary, a Runoff Election will be held on 12/4/04.

State Survey Conducted by: Eileen Canavan, Public Disclosure Division, Federal Election Commission, 800/424-9530 (option 3) or 202/694-1120.
